CLASS FEATURES ◆

Level 1 Creation Choices

- Class Skills: Stealth., Perception, Athletics, Acrobatics
- Expertise: Sleight of Hand, Stealth
- Chosen Languages: Gnomish, Dwarvish, Common Sign Language
- Starting Equipment: Option A - Leather Armor, 2 Daggers, Shortsword, Shortbow, 20 Arrows, Quiver, Thieves' Tools, Burglar's Pack and 8 GP; or

Expertise

You gain Expertise in two of your skill proficiencies of your choice. Sleight of Hand and Stealth are recommended if you have proficiency in them. At Rogue Level 6, you gain Expertise in two more of your skill proficiencies of your Choice.

Selected Skills: Sleight of Hand, Stealth.

Sneak Attack

You know how to strike subtly and exploit a foe's distraction. Once per turn you can deal an extra 1d6 damage to one creature you hit with an attack roll if you have Advantage on the roll and the attack uses a Finesse or a Ranged weapon. The extra damage's type is the same as the weapon's type. You don't need Advantage on the attack roll if at least one of your allies is within 5 feet of the target, the ally doesn't have the Incapacitated condition and you don't have Disadvantage on the attack roll. The extra damage increases as you gain Rogue levels, as shown in the Sneak Attack column of the Rogue Features table.

Thieves' Cant

You picked up various languages in the communities where you plied your roguish talents. You know Thieves' Cant and one other language of your choice, which you choose from the language tables in Chapter 2.

Weapon Mastery

Your training with weapons allows you to use the mastery properties of two kinds of weapons of your choice with which you have proficiency, such as Daggers and Shortbows. Whenever you finish a Long Rest, you can change the kinds of weapons you chose. For example, you could switch to using the mastery properties of Scimitars and Shortswords.

Selected Weapons: Sickle, Light Hammer.

Cunning Action

Your quick thinking and agility allow you to move and act quickly. On your turn, you can take one of the following actions as a Bonus Action: Dash, Disengage, or Hide.

Rogue Subclass

You gain a Rogue subclass of your choice. The Arcane Trickster, Assassin, Soulknife, and the Thief subclasses are detailed after this class's description. A Subclass is a specialization that grants you features at certain Rogue levels. For the rest of your career, you gain each of your subclass's features that are of your Rogue level or lower.

Rogue Subclasses

- * Arcane Trickster
- * Assassin
- * Scion of the Three
- * Soulknife
- * Thief

Steady Aim

As a Bonus Action, you give yourself Advantage on your next attack roll on your current turn. You can use this feature only if you haven't moved during this turn, and after you use it, your Speed is 0 until the end of the current turn.

Cunning Strike

You've developed cunning ways to use your Sneak Attack. When you deal Sneak Attack damage, you can add one of the following Cunning Strike effects. Each effect has a die cost, which is the number of Sneak Attack dice you must forgo to add the effect. You remove the die before rolling, and the effect occurs immediately after the attack's damage is dealt. For example, if you add the Poison effect, remove 1d6 from the Sneak Attack's damage before rolling. If a Cunning Strike requires a saving throw, the DC equals 8 plus your Dexterity modifier and Proficiency Bonus.

Poison (Cost: 1d6).

You add a toxin to your strike, forcing the target to make a Constitution saving throw. On a failed save, the target has the Poisoned condition for 1 minute. At the end of each of its turns, the poisoned target repeats the save, ending the effect on a success. To use this effect, you must have a Poisoner's Kit on your person.

Trip (Cost: 1d6).

If the target is Large or smaller, it must succeed on a Dexterity saving throw or have the Prone condition.

Withdraw (Cost: 1d6).

Immediately after the attack, you move up to half your speed without provoking Opportunity Attacks.

Uncanny Dodge

When an attacker that you can see hits you with an attack roll, you can take a Reaction to halve the attack's damage against you (round down).

SPECIES TRAITS ◆

Creature Type: Humanoid

Gnome:

You are also considered a gnome for any prerequisite or effect that requires you to be a gnome.

Darkvision:

You can see in dim light within 120 feet of you as if it were bright light and in darkness as if it were dim light. You discern colors in that darkness only as shades of gray.

Gift of the Svirfneblin:

Starting at 3rd level, you can cast the Disguise Self spell with this trait. Starting at 5th level, you can also cast the Nondetection spell with it, without requiring a material component. Once you cast either of these spells with this trait, you can't cast that spell with it again until you finish a long rest. You can also cast these spells using spell slots you have of the appropriate level. Intelligence, Wisdom, or Charisma is your spellcasting ability for these spells when you cast them with this trait (choose when you select this race).

Gnomish Magic Resistance:

You have advantage on Intelligence, Wisdom, and Charisma saving throws against spells.

Svirfneblin Camouflage:

When you make a Dexterity (Stealth) check, you can make the check with advantage. You can use this trait a number of times equal to your proficiency bonus, and you regain all expended uses when you finish a long rest.

FEATS ◆

Alert

from Background

Initiative Proficiency: When you roll Initiative, you can add your Proficiency Bonus to the roll.

Initiative Swap: Immediately after you roll Initiative, you can swap your Initiative with the Initiative of one willing ally in the same combat. You can't make this swap if you or the ally has the Incapacitated condition.

PERSONALITY

Backstory: I come from a long lineage of jewelers. Fiddling with tiny stones and gems never was never my forte and when I became of age my father gave me an ultimatum; learn the craft or leave our caverns. I chose the latter. The wilderness was tough, but being the underperforming middle child of a rather large gnome family taught me to be resourceful. Stealing came naturally to me. I ran with thieving guilds for years, robbing unsuspecting travelers on the trail as well as breaking into the most of luxurious mansions. But for the past year I've been alone. I left guild as I grew tired of stealing, I wanted something more. I want the great name Gnomewombles to be remembered for something else then trinkets and unlawfulness..

CHARACTER PORTRAIT / SYMBOL ◆

A character portrait of a warrior, likely a Barbarian, standing in a dark, rocky, and cavernous environment. The character is wearing a dark, hooded cloak and a detailed, metallic-looking armor. He is holding a sword in his right hand and a dagger in his left hand. The background is dimly lit, showing stone walls and a small, glowing light source in the distance.

A bar chart titled 'COINS' with a diamond icon. The chart displays the number of coins for five players: CP, SP, EP, GP, and PP. The y-axis represents the number of coins, with a scale from 0 to 157. The bars for CP, SP, EP, and PP are all at the 0 level. The bar for GP is at the 157 level.

DISGUISE SELF (GIFT OF THE SVIRFNEBLIN) ◆

1st-level Illusion

Free Casting: Gift of the Svirfneblin: 1/1 (Long Rest resets)

Casting Time: Action Duration: 1 hour	Range: Self Components: V, S
---	--

You make yourself - including your clothing, armor, weapons, and other belongings on your person - look different until the spell ends. You can seem 1 foot shorter or taller and can appear heavier or lighter. You must adopt a form that has the same basic arrangement of limbs as you have. Otherwise, the extent of the illusion is up to you. The changes wrought by this spell fail to hold up to physical inspection. For example, if you use this spell to add a hat to your outfit, objects pass through the hat, and anyone who touches it would feel nothing. To discern that you are disguised, a creature must take the Study action to inspect your appearance and succeed on an Intelligence (Investigation) check against your spell save DC.
